1° day - The Carpathians: Bucharest - Sinaia - Bran - Poiana Brasov (220km)

Leave in the morning from Bucharest to Sinaia, the Pearl of Carpathians. In Sinaia there are eleven buildings declared historical monuments, such as the Casino (1912-1913), Caraiman H. (1911), H. Palace (1911-1912), house memorial George Enescu (1923-1926), the Sinaia monastery (1690-1695), the complex Peles Castle (1873-1883), consisting of the royal Peles Castle, the Pelisor and Fojoros castles and the Economat villa. You will visit the Sinaia Monastery - a large monastic complex with 2 Orthodox churches, the largest was built in 1846, the Royal Church and the smaller is of 1695 and the Peles Castle - built by King Charles I of Hohenzollern as a summer residence. The royal palace is one of the must-see places in Romania. It was converted in a museum in 1955 and it is the most visited monument in Romania. In the royal palace's park can also be visited the Pelisor Castle, built in the Art Nouveau style between 1899 and 1902 for the Crown Prince, the future King Ferdinand and Queen Maria. We continue to Bran to visit the castle, better known to tourists as Dracula's Castle. Vlad Tepes (the Impaler) reigned in Wallachia in the fifteenth century. The building, sponsored by the Saxon merchants of Brasov, was finished in 1388 and defended the pass of Bran from the Turkish invasions. Continue towards Poiana Brasov passing near the slopes of Rasnov fortress. Accommodation will be in Poiana Brasov, the most popular winter resort in Romania. Dinner will be served in Coliba Haiducilor, a typical restaurant with Romanian local dishes. In the cellar you will discover many local products prepared by the owners.

2° day - In the heart of Transylvania (300km)

In the morning you will visit a few important cities of Transylvania, Brasov, called the Prague Romania in the Middle Ages, which was known for its many corporations who worked there. From its past, the city preserves important monuments, such as the Gothic Church (XV) St Bartholomew, the fortress (XVI). Walking through Brasov you can admire: the Council Square with the House of the Council, the Mouse of merchants and craftsmen, the Black Church - symbol of the city, the narrowest street in Eastern Europe, just one meter wide, the Schel - district - with the first Romanian school at the Orthodox Cathedral San Nicholas. Continue to Sighisoara with a stop to visit the Saxon fortified church of Prejmer - UNESCO world heritage site, one of the best preserved in Eastern Europe. The church was built in late Gothic style (XV). Stop to the fortified Saxon church of Saschiz. Arrival in Sighisoara and have a walking tour of the city, one of the most fascinating and romantic cities of Romania with its cobbled streets, lined with XVI century houses (Unesco World Heritage Site). It still retains its medieval aspect boasting three surrounding walls and 9 still standing towers and bastions from the original 14. Continue to Biertan, the largest Saxon church Transylvania, built in Gothic style, fortified in the fourteenth century, Unesco heritage, with a 12 m high surrounding wall. Inside there is a wooden door with a lock with more than 19 mechanisms, engineering marvel. Stops in Medias, for a walking tour of the old city center and admire the fortified church. Stop at the fortified Saxon church of Axente Sever, mentioned for the first time in 1322. Dinner and accommodation in Sibiu.

3° day – Castles and fortresses of Transylvania (300km)

Day tour in Hunedoara to visit the largest medieval castle in Romania built by Hunyadi family, relatives of the Hungarian King Matthias Corvinus. Afterwards, we’ll visit the Vauban citadel in the city of Alba Julia where there are two important cathedrals: Orthodox and Catholic. Alba Julia is considered the spiritual capital of the country, the city of the Great Union (the Union of Transylvania with the Kingdom of Romania in 1918). Continue towards Sibiel, where in the village you will visit a museum which the largest exhibition of icons on glass. Dinner in Sibiel on a working farm / rural tourism with Romanian dishes and typical drinks. Accommodation in Sibiu.

4° day – From Transylvania to Wallachia along the river Olt

In the morning a walking tour of Sibiu. The most beautiful medieval city of Romania, rich in history, which was designed the Culture Capital of Europe for the year 2007. The main places to visit are: the Large Square (142m x 93m) - where almost all of the buildings date back from to the fifteenth century, and they are famous for the small windows opening on the roofs that resemble half closed eyes, the Little Square - 1370, separated from the square by the Holy Trinity Roman Catholic Church (1726 -1753) and the Council Tower (1588 ), the bridge of Lies - the first cast iron bridge built in Romania (1859), the Huet Square, with the magnificent Evangelical Cathedral (1300 -1520), in Gothic style with a majestic bell tower with 5 points visible from afar - here is the tomb of Prince Mihnea the Villain, son of Vlad the Impaler and the reigning Prince of Wallachia (1507 - 1510). He was assassinated in front of the church. The fortifications built between the fourteenth and sixteenth century, had 59 towers of which there are only 7 still standing. Other places to visit: The History Museum which is housed in a Gothic building constructed between 1470 to 1490, the Holy Orthodox Cathedral Trinity (1902 -1906) - home of the Archbishop of Sibiu and Metropolitan Church of Ardeal, a basilica in Byzantine style, a reduced copy of St. Sophia Cathedral.

In the afternoon we will visit the monasteries of Agapia (1641) run by a community of nuns, which live in small flowered houses, set around the main church frescoed inside by Nicolae Grigorescu, the most famous Romanian painter. He studied at the school of Barbizon, with the French Impressionists. The visits continue with the Neamț Monastery, the largest and the oldest in Moldova. The present church was built by Stefan the Great (XV) but the monastic complex dates back to a century earlier. During a short walk we will reach the Neamț fortress. Stop for coffee at the foot of the hills where the old fortress stands majestically since the sixteenth century. Continue to Râșca, visit the monastery of monks built in 1542, with exterior frescoes in the Byzantine style. Evening arrival in Suceava, the ancient capital of Moldavia’s ruler and saint Stephen the Great. Dinner and accommodation in Suceava.

3° day: Visit the monasteries of Bucovina (220km)

In the morning we’ll visit the citadel of Suceava and the monastery of St. George, known for its glazed roof and external frescoes. We will visit at Raduatu, Bogdăna church, princely necropolis, the oldest religious building in Moldova, in Gothic style. Visit the Putna Monastery (1466), built by Stephen the Great to be his eternal abode. Stop in Marginea to get a glimpse of the manufacturing process of the black ceramic. Lunch. In the afternoon, we will visit the monastery of Sucevita (1601), the most recent of the painted monasteries. It is famous for ‘Scale of the virtues’ and its green colour. It’s the only of the painted churches that still has the original fortifications intact. The last two visits of the day are reserved for the monasteries of Humor (1530) - famous frescoes of the glorification of the Virgin and the Siege of Constantinople in red hues and the monastery of Voronet (1488) - famous for the blue hue fresco, which earned it the nickname of the Sistine Chapel of the East. Dinner and accommodation in Suceava.

4° day: Towards the North Bucovina - Ucraina (230km)

In the morning we will visit two buildings near Suceava, unique for their architecture: the monastery of Dragomirna (1609), work in stone masterpiece and the small church of Patrauți (1487), the first church built by Stefan the Great – we will admire the famous fresco of the Ride of the Holy Cross in yellow hues. We will cross the Ukrainian border at the town of Siret. Arrival in Cernăuți, the ancient capital of Bukovina. Visit the University (1875), former headquarters of the Metropolitan Church of Bukovina, in Moorish-Byzantine style. Walk to admire the Orthodox Church of St. Nicholas (1939), similar to the famous Roman church of Curtea de Argeș, the Greek-catholic church in yellow hues, the Armenian Catholic church, the synagogue, the pink Orthodox cathedral. The architecture of the city centre is similar to that of an eighteenth century Austrian village. Lunch. Return to Suceava, short stop at the monastery of Bănceni and at the town of Herta. We will cross back the Romanian border at the town of Siret, one of the oldest cities of the Moldavian Principality, the second capital of the kingdom, in the fourteenth century, after Baia. Dinner and accommodation in Suceava.

5° day: To Moldova Stephen the Great - Rep. Moldova (400km)

In the morning we will cross the border with the Moldavian Republic. We will also see the Memorial House of Pushkin, who lived here for a few months when he began to write Yevgeny Onegin in 1823, a portrait in verse of the life of the Russian people. The memorial house was inaugurated in 1948. In Chisinau, you can also see the Arch of Triumph, raised following the victory of the Tsarist Empire over the Ottoman Empire in 1821, the first drinking water tower (XXX), 22m high with 60cm thick walls, the monument of Prince Stephen the Great and the Metropolitan Cathedral “Nativity of the Lord”. Dinner and accommodation in Chisinau.

7° day: From Rep. Moldova to Moldova (180km)
We will leave in the morning, have a brief stop at the winery Milestii Mici, which together with Cricova competes for the title of the winery with the longest tunnels. We’ll visit the Suruceni monastery, where in 1785 the rich, noble Casian Suruceanu built what is considered the most sacred religious place for Moldovans. Destroyed during the Soviet occupation, it was reopened as a monastery of nuns in 1992. Here are several important relics for the Orthodox Church, among the oldest of the Carpathian-Danubian space. We’ll stop in Bardar to visit the new ostriches breeding farm and more. Here you will meet a colourful and varied world of animals, from wild horses, ponies, peacocks, pheasants, black swans, miniature goats and falcons. Later, we will arrive at the Manuc Bey hunting castle, built in the nineteenth century in Moldovan style with influences of French classicism. Lunch. Late afternoon we will arrive in Iasi. In the afternoon we’ll visit the historical centre, starting with the beautiful Palace of Culture and the princely Church of St. Nicholas, the Three Hierarchs Church, a stone face, the Metropolitan Church and the National Theatre.
